INTRODUCING YOUR SAFETY DEPARTMENT, LLC

Safety Solutions Made Simple

AUGUST 25, 2015, (San Antonio, Texas) - Your Safety Department, LLC announces its availability as a new Safety Solution provider for the Oil, Gas, Chemical, Power, Mining, Agriculture, Construction and General Industry business sectors.

Many small to medium sized companies can increase financial performance, employee morale, and greater productivity through the use of outsourced safety support due to its cost effectiveness and the ability to draw on a large pool of resources to support the needs of mid-sized companies economically. Your Safety Department's vision is to create lasting partnerships with small to mid-sized corporate customers in order to help improve business performance and productivity by reducing or eliminating health, safety and environmental incidents in the workplace and at home.

Chris Thuneman, President of Your Safety Department says, "We are excited about the opportunities we have to help our clients reduce injuries in the workplace particularly in the challenging environments that many of them work in. Your Safety Department seeks to be the premier safety company for those clients who can benefit from help with managing their safety programs from training, testing, certifying, and equipping to finding adequate safety personnel to staff construction projects."

Your Safety Department kicks off this announcement with an H<sub>2</sub>S Certification Class and H<sub>2</sub>S Awareness Class to be held in Floresville, Texas on September 3, 2015. Please feel free to register for either of these classes at www.yoursafetydept.com or call (888)-859-5653. Additional classes will be offered on a regular basis or can be scheduled at your site for your convenience.
